THE STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE.

Whether elected with the understanding that they would not take active part in politics or not, the Federal officeholders on the Republican State Central committee ought not to remain there. Such a condition will put them out of harmony with the party and the party's candidates, and it will be a source of embarrassment to the latter. Those who hold their offices as a reward for having worked for the election of Mr. Roosevelt and Mr. Fairbanks ought to resign the moment they begin to put the success of the ticket in doubt. They have had their day, and they have had their reward. The present duty is that of the men who are now working for the success of the ticket. Mr. Roosevelt's letter, quoted below, points in this direction.

THE STORMY SESSION.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 7.—[Special.]—The day opened with a decided sensation. It was announced that Rev. Dr. Thomas, pastor of the Plymouth Congregational Church, Chicago, who had been summoned to appear before the Council to answer charges preferred against him by Rev. Dr. Patton, pastor of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, Chicago, had left the city. Dr. Thomas was present at the opening session of the Council, but left before the noon recess. He left a letter addressed to the Council, stating that he had been informed that charges had been preferred against him, and that he had left the city to avoid the scandal which would be brought upon the Congregational denomination by the trial. He also stated that he would not appear before the Council, and that he would not be present at any subsequent session. He also stated that he would not be present at any subsequent session. He also stated that he would not be present at any subsequent session. He also stated that he would not be present at any subsequent session.

The Council then proceeded to the examination of Rev. Dr. Patton, and the examination was conducted by Rev. Dr. Thomas, of Chicago, and Rev. Dr. Patton, of Chicago, and Rev. Dr. Patton, of Chicago, and Rev. Dr. Patton

An informal reception was given in the parlors of the Church of the Ascension last evening to the former rector, the Rev. Arthur Gosling, now of St. Ignatius' Church, New York City. All of the old parishioners took to the city, to the number of several hundred, were present, and the occasion was a most pleasant one. Mr. Gosling, in a few remarks, expressed his regret at severing the relations which had existed between himself and his congregation for so many years, but said that he felt that he was doing the best thing for himself and family in accepting the call to New York. He was followed by Rev. Mr. Locke, who spoke in the highest terms of Mr. Gosling's character as a man and a minister, and of the good work he had done in the parish. Mr. Gosling was then presented with a handsome gold-headed cane, and a purse containing $1,000 in gold, as a token of the esteem in which he was held by his parishioners. Mr. Gosling, in a few words, thanked them for the gifts, and said that he should always remember the kindness shown him by his friends in Chicago.

The Next Convention to Be Held in New Haven—The Old Officers Unanimously Reelected.

SPECIAL TO THE TRIBUNE.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Aug. 7.—The Catholic Total Abstinence Convention met this morning at 9 o'clock, and was called to order by the President, Father Mathew T. Conaty, of Worcester, Mass. Prior to that hour the delegates began to assemble, and when the convening hour arrived the hall was filled with the representatives of the various societies of the United States, and the attendance was even larger than that of the previous morning. Among those present were Father C. J. Hutchinson of Boston, Father Conaty, the Rev. James H. Conry of Hartford, the Rev. James H. Cleary of Norwich, Mrs. Conaty, the ladies accompanying the various delegations, and many others.

The Secretary's financial report, a synopsis of which has been given, was read and referred to the auditing committee, and the roll-call of delegations was next in order.

The Rev. John B. Campbell of Philadelphia then introduced the following resolution, which was referred to the committee on resolutions: Resolved, That it is the sense of this Convention that a committee of seven be appointed by the President to draft a memorial to the General Council of Baltimore. The Rev. Father Campbell, of this city, Chairman; the Rev. John B. Campbell of Philadelphia, John B. Campbell of Pennsylvania, the Rev. J. B. Culen of Bridgeport, the Rev. J. F. Mullin of Brooklyn, John Boyle O'Reilly of Connecticut, and Louis Bolander of Baltimore.

Mr. Bolander of Philadelphia moved that the matter of appointing places for the next annual convention be referred to the Executive Committee of Ireland and that this Union ratify any such decision. Father Conaty suggested that Notre Dame, Indiana, be considered.

The motion of Mr. Bolander was then put to the meeting and carried.

The Rev. Father Hutchinson of Boston then moved that the Convention tender a vote of thanks to the Rev. Father Conaty for the able manner in which he had presided over the deliberations of the Convention. The motion was carried by a rising vote.

Father Conaty then addressed the meeting, saying that he was very much pleased with the manner in which the Convention had been conducted, and that he hoped that the good work would go on. He thanked the delegates for the honor they had conferred upon him in electing him President of the Convention, and said that he would do all in his power to further the interests of the cause.

The Rev. Father Cleary of Norwich moved that the Convention tender a vote of thanks to the Rev. Father Mathew T.
